THE EXPRESSION OF RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS AT WORK: FREEDOM OF RELIGION AND THE DUTY TO ACCOMMODATE IN CANADA

ABSTRACT

As a country marked by successive waves of immigration, what protection does Canada afford to religious freedom in the workplace? That is the question this article addresses. We will first describe the particular religious context in Canada as well as the regulatory framework. We will then outline the different forms of religious expression in the workplace and their treatment by the courts.

KEY WORDS : Religious freedom, non-discrimination, right to equality, duty to accommodate, Canadian employment law

RÉSUMÉ

Dans un pays marqué par les vagues successives d'immigration, quelle protection le Canada accorde-t-il à la liberté de religion en milieu de travail ? C'est la question à laquelle cet article tente de répondre. Après avoir brossé le contexte religieux particulier du Canada, un examen du cadre réglementaire y est présenté avant de révéler les différentes formes d'expressions religieuses au travail et le traitement jurisprudentiel qui leur est réservé.

MOTS CLÉS : Liberté de religion, non-discrimination, droit à l'égalité, obligation d'accommodement, droit du travail canadien
